

The Long Island Museum
Presents

Senior Tuesdays

Seniors 62 and older are invited to drop in from 10 a.m. to noon one Tuesday each month for a free, self-guided tour of one exhibition.

The Long Island Museum features art, carriage and history museums on nine park-like acres in the historic village of Stony Brook. Landscaped gardens frame 18th and 19th century buildings. For more information about the museum or Senior Tuesdays please call 631-751-0066 or visit www.longislandmuseum.org.

September 14
Carriage Galleries

Newly renovated galleries in the Carriage Museum include A Gentleman's Coach House and the European Vehicles Gallery.

Explore the interior of a typical 19th century Gold Coast Carriage House, complete with a tack room and groom's quarters.

See the most elaborately decorated carriages in our collection; one of them owned by Prince Adalbert of Bavaria (1828-1875)

The Carriage
Museum

October 12
America's Kitchens

From open fires to microwave ovens, the American kitchen tells a story. America's Kitchens showcases the important role of kitchens throughout American history.

The exhibition features recreated kitchens, artifacts, photographs and the personal stories that bring them to life.

The Art Museum

November 9
The Story of Harness Racing by Currier & Ives

Enjoy a pristine collection of 35 framed original Currier & Ives lithographs examining great trotting horses, mid 19th century scenes and comedic adventures that convey the picturesque part of Americana prior to the advent and development of photography.

Presented by the Harness
Racing Museum & Hall
of Fame

The Carriage
Museum.

December 14
Colors of Long Island: Student Expressions

Original artwork by students in grades K through 12 from across Long Island.

This annual exhibit includes watercolors, oil paintings, drawings, sculpture and photography designed and executed by Long Island students to convey their interpretations of The Colors of Long Island.

The Art
Museum

Senior Tuesdays are sponsored by

